Original Poetry.

STANZAS.

Ye who tread the paths of joy,
Amid the halls of worldly pleasure;
Leave, oh! leave life's ev'ry toy—
In heaven gain a richer treasure.

Ye who tread the paths of vice,
Or wander on still blindly ever—
Turn!—oh! make the sacrifice,
Before your fate shall whisper, "Never!"

See the world (how deep its sins!)
Still blindly turns from smiles of heaven—
Ere the reign of peace begins,
The universe to War is given.

Ere the smiles of heaven shine,
Their light—alas!—in gloom is shrouded—
Ere we see the Light Divine,
The Evil all our hope has clouded.

Ye who join the drinker's brawl,
In hovels filled with fiends infernal,
Turn, oh thoughtless Bacchanal,
From hell and all its woes eternal.

Bid, oh! bid the earth farewell!
And turn thy thoughts to themes of glory;
Leave the charnel house of hell,
And knowledge gain from sacred story.

Ye who tread false paths of joy,
Amid the halls of worldly pleasure;
Leave, oh! leave life's ev'ry toy—
In heaven gain a richer treasure.

EX-PRESIDENT BUCHANAN ON THE WAR.

WEST CHESTER, PA., Oct. 4.—At a great Union meeting at Hayesville, Chester County, Pa., the following letter of Ex-President Buchanan was read:

WHEATLAND, near Lancaster, PA., September 28.

DEAR SIR:—I have been honored by your kind invitation as chairman of the appropriate committee, to attend and address a Union meeting of the citizens of Chester and Lancaster counties, to be held at Haysville, on the first of October. This I should gladly accept, proceeding, as it does, from a much-valued portion of my old Congressional District, but advancing years and the present state of my health render it impossible.

You correctly estimate the deep interest which I feel, in common with the citizens who will there be assembled, in the present condition of our country. This is indeed serious; but our recent military reverses, so far from producing despondency in the minds of a loyal and powerful people, will only animate them to more mighty exertions in sustaining a war which has become inevitable, by the assault of the Confederate States upon Fort Sumter.

For this reason, were it possible for me to address you, waiving all other topics, I should confine myself to a solemn and earnest appeal to my countrymen, and especially those without families, to volunteer for the war, and join the many thousands of brave and patriotic volunteers who are already in the field.

This is the moment for action; for prompt, energetic and united action, and not for the discussion of peace propositions. These, we must know would be rejected by the States that have seceded, unless we should offer to recognize their independence, which is entirely out of the question.

Better councils may hereafter prevail, when these people shall be convinced that the war is conducted, not for their conquest or subjugation, but solely for the purpose of bringing them back to their original position in the Union, without impairing in the slightest degree any of their constitutional rights.

Whilst, therefore, we shall cordially hail their return under our common and glorious flag, and welcome them as brothers, yet, until that happy day shall arrive, it will be our duty to support the President with all the men and means at the command of the country, in a vigorous and successful prosecution of the war.

Yours, very respectfully,
(Signed) JAMES BUCHANAN.

THE FIRST STEP.—An old criminal was once asked what was the first step that led him to ruin. He answered: "The first step, was cheating the printer out of two years subscription. The devil held him after that."

Every member of the human family has certainly a very large family connection.

EXTRAORDINARY POLITICAL CONFESSIONS.

The New York papers are having an extraordinary time to themselves. Messrs. Weed and Greeley are very severe on each other, and the charges alleged, acknowledged, black with bribes, founded on recent legal disclosures, would consign any man in this latitude to everlasting infamy did he aid in anything half so vile, only serve as pastime for Gotham editors. Mr. Bennett comes to the rescue, and in his own slashing manner makes the application complete, and points out the way with the moral revealed as to hopeful results to the country from this quarrel. The annexed is the Herald's article on the subject:

The most singular political confessions, perhaps, ever made are those of Thurlow Weed and Horace Greeley, just made by these politicians in their own journals. The one has been engaged for some forty years and the other twenty in the dirty work of party corruption, and both confess they have had a large share in it, though we cannot expect them to tell us all the truth. Weed has been in league with the Albany Regency in the railroad operations, both in the State and the city of New York. The Third Avenue Railroad stock is particularly referred to by Greeley as the richest of those placers in which Weed has mined, and Weed responds by admitting the fact and giving Greeley "a Roland for his Oliver." "Obnoxious," he says, "as the admission is to a just sense of right and to a better condition of political ethics, we stand so far impeached. We would have preferred not to disclose to public view the financial history of political life, nor should the Tribune have constrained such disclosures. Public men know much of what the rest of mankind are ignorant. If we have sinned in this way, Mr. Greeley ought not to 'cast the first stone.' He has not always been fastidious in the use of money at elections or in legislation. He knows how much it really cost, and out of whose pockets the money came, to elect a Speaker in Congress. He knows how he expected to be reimbursed; he knows for what purpose a thousand dollar check was handed to him."

Thus does the pot call the kettle black, and the kettle returns the compliment, and both acknowledge the soft impeachment. Quoth Weed: "Painful as the confession is, we are bound in truth and from knowledge to say, that James Buchanan was elected President, and this great and then happy and glorious republic ruined, simply because Messrs. Wendell, Forney and Belmont raised $50,000 more money to be expended in Pennsylvania than William A. Hall, Truman Smith and the writer of this article could procure for the same object."

This is making a clean breast with a vengeance. Weed and and Greeley, it seems, were excelled by Forney in corruption in 1856, and they consequently lost the election of President; but to compensate for that defeat they carried, by dint of money, the election of Speaker in Congress. Such are the shameless confessions made by these politicians in their criminations and recriminations. They are highly edifying, and illustrate the proverb that when rogues fall out the public gain by the quarrel.

There is a moral in these revelations for the study of every honest man; and we all ought to ask ourselves, how can we expect that the country should be in any other condition than the deplorable state in which we now find it, when men who stoop to such rascality, and blush not to confess it, have been permitted so long to control the political destinies of the nation?

THE CAPTAIN'S PUDDING.—The following is told of a Yankee captain and his mate:—Whenever there was a plum-pudding made, by the captain's orders, all the plums were put into one end of it, and that end placed next to the captain, who, after helping himself, passed it to the mate, who never found any plums in his part of it. After this game had been played for some time, the mate prevailed on the steward to place the end which had no plums in next to the captain.

The captain no sooner perceived that the pudding had the wrong end turned towards him than picking up the dish, and turning it round, as if to examine the china, he said—

"This dish cost me two shillings in Liverpool!" and put it down, as if without design, with the plum end next to himself.

"Is it possible?" said the mate, taking up the dish. "I shouldn't suppose it was worth more than a shilling." And, as if in perfect innocence, he put down the dish with the plums next to himself.

The captain looked at the mate; the mate looked at the captain. The captain laughed; the mate laughed.

"I'll tell you what, 'young one,' said the captain, "you've found me out; so we will just cut the pudding lengthwise this time, and have the plums fairly distributed hereafter."

Everybody should take a newspaper.—

FROST MUSIC.

I was once belated in Canada on a fine winter day, and was riding over the hard snow on the margin of a wide lake when the most faint and mournful wail that could break a solemn silence seemed to pass through me like a dream. I stopped my horse and listened. For some time I could not satisfy myself whether the music was in the air or in my brain. I thought of the pine forest which was not far off; but the tone was not harp like, and there was not a breath of wind. Then it swelled and approached; and then it seemed to be miles away in a moment; and again it moaned as if under my very feet. It was, in fact, almost under my feet. It was the voice of the winds imprisoned under the pall of ice suddenly cast over them by the peremptory power of the frost. Nobody there had made air holes, for the place was a wilderness; and there was no escape for the winds, which must moan on till the spring warmth should release them. They were fastened down in silence; but they would come out with an explosion when, in some still night, after a warm spring day, the ice would blow up, and make a crash and a racket from shore to shore. So I was told at my host's that evening, where I arrived with something of the sensation of a haunted man. It had been some time before the true idea struck me, and meanwhile the rising and falling moan made my very heart thrill again.

THE ORIGIN OF MARSEILLES.

Some thousands of years ago, a Greek vessel, tempest-tossed by the south winds, took refuge in the most beautiful harbor of Provence. The captain, young and smiling as the gods of his own country, claimed the hospitality of the Gallic chieftain who reigned along the coast.

"Sup with us," replied the long-bearded man; "to-morrow I marry my daughter, Marseille, and to-night, after the banquet, she will make her choice among the candidates for her hand."

The Greek and his marines were present at the feast. The young Gauls declared the ardor of their love by emptying the jugs, swearing in their own patois, and striking the table with their fists. The Greek knew but little of the language of the country, but his eye spoke language which makes itself understood throughout the earth.

When the light of the torches began to pale before the light of day, the young Marseille arose, took a cup of generous wine sprinkled with rose leaves, and walked slowly around the table to make her choice. She passed disdainfully by the young chiefs, who turned toward her stroking their red moustaches, and stopped before the stranger, who was no longer looking at her.—She touched him on the shoulder and offered him the cup, turning away her face, rosier than summer clouds at sunset.

The Gauls trembled with jealous anger, but the Greek heeded them not. He took the cup with his left hand, resting his right on the hilt of his sword. The same day he married the chieftain's daughter, and he never returned to the Ionian shores where his mother awaited him at her spinningwheel. The arts of Greece flourished gloriously around him; and the spot on which he built a house for his bride is still called the town of Marseille.

A CALIFORNIA TRIAL.

A fellow, named Donks, was lately tried at Yuba City for entering a miner's tent and seizing a bag of gold dust, valued at eighty four dollars. The testimony showed that he had once been employed there, and knew exactly where the owner kept his dust, that on the night of October 19th he cut out a slit in the tent, reached in, took the bag, and then ran off.

Jem Buller, the principal witness, testified that he saw the hole cut, saw the man reach in, and heard him run away.

"I put for him at once," continued the witness, but when I cotched him I didn't find Bill's bag; but it was found afterwards where he had throwed it."

Counsel for the prisoner—How far did he get in when he took the dust?

Buller—Well, he was stoopin' over about half in, I should say.

Counsel—May it please your honor, the indictment isn't sustained, and I shall demand an acquittal on direction of the court. The prisoner is on trial for entering a dwelling in the night time, with intent to steal. The testimony is clear, that he made an opening, through which he protruded himself about half way, and, stretching out his arms, committed the theft. But the indictment charges that he actually entered the tent or dwelling. Now, your Honor, can a man enter a house, when only one half of his body is in, and the other half out?

Judge—I shall leave the whole matter to the jury. They must judge of the law and facts as proved.

The jury brought in a verdict of "guilty," as to one half of his body, from the waist up, and "not guilty," as to the other half.

The Judge sentenced the guilty half to two years imprisonment, leaving it to the prisoner's option to have the not guilty half cut off or take it along with him. A judgment worthy of Solomon.

PROTECTING ROSES IN WINTER.—I would like to communicate an experience I have made these last two years—that is how to keep tender roses through the winter safe and in a small place. I take my roses up in the fall, trim them considerably back, and heel them in a frame. I kept over a hundred roses under one sash and found them all alive and in good order, even though my ground is very wet. I found not only that they kept well, but they flowered very fine the whole of last summer. I found this idea stated in the Ohio Farmer some years ago, by Mr. Elliott. In speaking of it, he says: "I have yet to learn that it is not the best way to keep them."

AGRICULTURAL.

Potatoes are now to be gathered and stored away. Take them from the ground on a dry day, and take them all for they will be wanted. In storing them recollect that you must guard against three things, light, frost and moisture; exclude these effectually and you can keep your potatoes as long as you choose. Other root crops will demand your attention in succession. The above suggestions apply to them all.

Every farmer has, or ought to have a good apple orchard. If you have one, pick off your apples carefully, nip them, spread them loosely on shelves, and secure them as winter advances from the frost—you think now, that this is too much trouble; you will think differently about the first of March, when either you will have some good apples for your family or friends, or else you will wish you had.

If you have no orchard, look around, while you are busy with your farm work, or ask your sensible wife, in the evening, after it is all done for the day, and settle where you will have one; and be getting ready to do it, and at the proper time, which is now almost upon you, do it.—The sooner after the leaves fall, you get your trees into the ground the better; next week, some nurserymen, if they understand their business, will tell you in our paper, where you can get the trees.

Do not omit to fix, at the same time, on spots where you are to plant, some pears, peaches, cherries, currants, &c., and above all, some grape vines—a little ground, a little attention, and a little, bestowed carefully, and with system, upon these things, will add greatly to the comfort of your families, save you, and if you choose, make you many a dollar.

Attention and labor—apply these to your farm, with the best knowledge, and the most carefully husbanded means you have, and it will soon begin to be a farm, worth looking at, and worth owning.—Field and Fireside.

CLEARING LAND OF STONE.—Speaking of the ill effects of the entire removal of stone from [illegible] O. W. True in the New. England Farmer [illegible] a most loamy, rich soil, lying upon a gravel plain almost impenetrable to water, but when the loose ones and those that the plow came in contact with, were dug out, the soil seemed entirely changed. It was later in the spring, and the grass did not hold out but about half as long as before the stones were removed. Had it been underdrained, I am confident it would have been much improved, instead of being a week later than originally." The removal of "the natural attractors of heat," and the loss of the mineral matters supplied by the wearing away of the stones, is his explanation of this difference.

THE SEA SERPENT EXPLAINED.—The experience of one of the editors of the Salem Gazette, will prove a "staggerer" to the believers in the existence of that mythic monster the sea serpent. He was one of a party becalmed in Salem harbor, and gives his journal of twenty-four hours from which we extract the following instructive leaf.

At an early hour in the morning one or two in the cabin were hastily summoned to the deck, to see a sea monster gliding swiftly through the water. On reaching the deck several of the party, including the captain and schooner's hands were watching the animal, which was some three quarters of a mile distant. He was apparently eighty feet long. The head would rise slightly from the surface, creating a foam in its progress. The long body projected from the water at regular intervals in "humps" or coils. The motion was uniform, and both the head and projections from the body maintained their relative position to each other with such accuracy as to leave no doubt of the reality of the strange monster. Every one was convinced, and even the captain declared that in all his seafaring experience he never saw the like before.

When full belief in the sea-serpent had been established, it was just as suddenly brought to a close. Later in the forenoon the animal was seen again. This time he came nearer, however, and so near, in fact, as to be distinguished as a horse mackerel—the 'humps' in the rear being nothing more than the wake left behind him. None but those who have seen this fish under such circumstances can appreciate the deception. The waves or wake in the rear are very regular, and subside to the view fifty or seventy-five feet from the animal. To be seen with full deceptive effect, the animal should be some three quarters of a mile distant and the sea nearly a dead calm. It is probable under just such circumstances as the "sea serpent" has been so frequently seen off Nahant.

What a wretched old bachelor that must have been, who, on being asked concerning a row of backs standing in the street, if there was a funeral, replied, with a shrug, "Worse; there's a marriage."

☞'Pat, how is coal this morning?' asked one Irishman of another.

"As black as iver!" was the reply.

SCHOOL ETHICS FOR PARENT AND CHILD.

No. 16.

Pupils should aid the teacher in his work.

Whatever the opponents of the common school system may say against teachers as individuals, and as a class, yet their work is responsible. The skeptical eyes of the community are ever eager to ridicule each trifling error that is committed. Mole hills are magnified to mountains. All this, too, on account of the few dollars of tax which are required from every one to support the school system. The benefits resulting from the common schools of the county seem to be overlooked, and the few failures arising, not from the system itself, but from some other unavoidable circumstances, are always made to assume a more glaring deformity than is the reality. Pupils very often contribute much to the already hard labor of the teacher, by committing misdemeanors trifling enough in themselves, but which in the aggregate serve to detract very much from the well-working of the school. By rendering strict obedience to the teacher's requirements, the pupil will not only increase the well-working of the school, but will relieve the teacher of a great burden. There are many things to be done in the school which if done by the pupils, will add much to their own welfare, as well as to that of the teacher. Not only a strict obedience to the teacher's requirements, will thus aid in attaining the end sought for, but much may be accomplished by a spirit always anticipating his wishes, and complying with them. Kindness offered by the pupil to the teacher will neither be forgotten nor remain unpaid by the latter, if he be a worthy recipient. A very great deal will depend upon the teacher, to successfully accomplish much in cultivating such a spirit in the pupil. Here, as indeed throughout the whole system, the teacher seems to be the Keystone of the arch.

If it be in any manner defective, the structure must inevitably crumble and fall to destruction. The teacher's example is one of the strongest incentives to determined action in any direction. If that example, then, be good, the actions of the pupil will generally conform to it. Pupils may do much to aid the teacher, and yet the labor is so small that they themselves scarcely notice it but from its effects. Thus without doing themselves any harm they may benefit all connected with the system.

KAPPA.

We have a word with the educational editor of the Inquirer. In the last number of that paper, in commenting on our criticism on a late article that emanated from his pen, he says that he "did not think that anybody (meaning us) so evidently weak in calculation would comprehend" his sublimely logical arguments. We thank him for the charitable construction of "mode" which he has given in the sentence, for he grants us the power, but not the will of comprehension. Fain would we comprehend and appreciate all that he says, but we are free to confess that it takes stronger comprehensive faculties than we are in possession of, to do so.

In endeavoring to rebut our criticism he makes use of very flimsy assertions. In comparing the soldier with the teacher, he says that the former "may be a drunken, disorderly, ignorant person," while the latter "must be sober, industrious and well educated." Now this we deny in toto, as regards the soldier. He must be sober, orderly, and if he is well educated, he can look for honor and advancement the sooner. Vide army regulations. Disorder, drunkenness and ignorance are not appreciated in any of the walks of life.

We criticised his articles, then, as now, because we claim it as our own prerogative to do so, and we shall exercise that prerogative, all unpleasant feelings that it may cause in the "classical bosom" of our friend, to the contrary notwithstanding. We held that in these times economy and retrenchment are necessary in all the vocations of life, the teacher's profession not excepted, and by conferring with educators of this and other counties, we feel confident that we had the right side of the question.

In this connection we cannot refrain from again referring to the peculiar style of reasoning to which the "editor" resorts. Instance the following: "We allow that effect follows cause, but until there is a cause, (which we contend there is not) we shall not look for the effect. All we ask is, to have the two in regular order." Profound logic! Ye philosophers who have been contending that there is a cause for every effect, now retract your doctrine, for the above assertion being made in a general sense, you must admit that there is no cause. Who ever heard of "cause and effect" coming in irregular order. Can there be an effect before the cause exists? We respectfully submit.—

The "editor" accuses us of being personal. We disclaim any thing of the sort. We never intended to be personal. We endeavored to criticise his writings, not his actions or personal appearance. His "fair name and fame" are too well established, to suffer any "permanent injury" from any thing that might emanate from our pen. Our "style of argument" may not be exactly palatable to him, but he must overlook our fallibility, and "remember that none but inferior minds resort to that style." His superior mind wings its flight to the Andes of his imagination, and, like the Condor, he sits on its lofty summit, and looks with disdain on the "inferior minds" below.

He says we find "pleasure in ebullitions of supposed wit." We never pretended to be witty. The descendants of the Teutonic race were never proverbial for wit. Some other classes of people are. We never desired to "perpetuate jokes" on him. The consequences might be truly disastrous; for, Pope says,—

"Blockheads with reason wicked wits abhor,
But fool with fool is barb'rous civil war!"

SIMON.

A HISTORICAL PARALLEL.—In one respect there is a perfect analogy between the advance of the Federal army into the revolted States and that of Bonaparte into Russia—we mean the terrible servile alliance in each case offered. Says Hazlitt in his "Life of Napoleon;" "One great fear of the Russians was that their slaves would rise up, throw off their bondage and it was therefore an object to prevent their having any communication with the French. They made use of the most improbable and disgusting fables to excite their terror and hatred and of their ignorance and degradation to perpetuate that ignorance and degradation." "Those serfs," as Montholon says, "who inhabited the little towns were well disposed to head an insurrection against the noblesse. This was the reason why the Russians resolved to set fire to [illegible] was on the route of the army."

Such is the perfectly analogous situation in the two cases. We believe that our true policy is precisely that which commended itself to the greatest practical publicist of his age. Bonaparte refused to avail himself of the disposition of the serfs to rise against their masters. And why? For precisely the indentical reasons that force themselves upon us. "The serfs," said he, "are unfit to be trusted with the liberty they desire. If I encourage the subjects of the Czar to rise against him, I cannot hope that he will ever again become my friend." He subsequently made use of this languge to the Senate of France: "By proclaiming the emancipation of the slaves, I could have armed the greater portion of the Russian population against himself. In several villiages this enfranchisment was demanded of me. But the war I made upon Russia was political, and, besides, the brutality of this numerous class of the Russian people is such that this measure would devote many families to the most horrid barbarities."

Well, we are engaged in just such a political war, in spite of our own will, against an adversary that has been, and who it is of great consequence should again be, our "friend."—In neither case was subjugation the purpose, but simply the restoration of affairs to the status quo ante bellum. That being the object of Bonaparte, as he himself declared, he did not doubt that his true policy was to prevent this "political war from being the occasion of a social and servile war. He held to his to the last, even up to the time he left Moscow. As is said by Sir Robert Wilson, an English writer, who was present during the most of the campaign: "There is no question that a civil war could have been fomented in Russia; and by Bonaparte who rejected the offers of insurrecwich were made to him dur ing the time he was in Moscow."

Now, if Bonaparte was impelled by the importance of not permanently alienating the Czar and also by considerations of humanity, to avoid all incitement to servile war, the same policy is most incumbent upon us. The recovered friendship of the Czar was necessary to him simply that an external ally might be won; but the regained friendship of the Southern people is necessary to us that our internal oneness may be saved. The humane inducements in his case referred only to distant foreigners, of alien blood, strange religion and barbarous language; in our case they refer to our own kith and kin, speakers of the same mother tongue, worshippers at the same altar, and fellow-citizens under the same free rule. The reasons which pressed so powerfully upon the great French Emperor press with far more force upon us.—New York World.

☞ His Reverence Brigadier General Polk has smiten Kentucky on one cheek, and now Gen. Zollicoffer has smitten her on the "other also." That, the Louisville Journal thinks, is the utmost that Christianity requires a Christian State to put up with.

☞ Vanity Fair thinks the most crowded summer retreat of the season was that from Manassas to Washington.

Pennsylvania Redeemed.

The result of the recent election, in this state, shows conclusively that the Democratic party has recovered its former strength, and that the people are convinced that our country must once more be placed under Democratic rule, to insure the return of our pristine safety and prosperity. The Democracy have carried the State on the popular vote, by a very handsome majority. They have gained largely on their last years strength in the Assembly and may have a majority in the Lower House, if not on joint ballot. The Senate remains Republican, as its members are elected for three years, and the Republicans secured nearly every Senator in the disastrous campaign of 1861. The Democrats, however, have gained several senators in districts lately represented by Republicans. The legislation of the next Legislature, will of course, still have the impress of Republicanism upon it, but another year will, we doubt not, wipe every trace of that political mildew from the legislative halls at Harrisburg. Another such a triumph for the Democracy, and the Augean stables of our state politics will be cleansed.—The following are a few "comfortable" Democratic majorities: Schuylkill 1500 (gave Lincoln 1500) : Lehigh, 1600 (gave Foster about 200); Westmoreland, 1000 (gave Lincoln a majority); Fayette 700 (gave Lincoln a majority) Cumberland, 600 (gave Lincoln a majority); York, 1600; Northampton, 1200; Greene, 1200; Cambria, 1200 (gave Lincoln a majority) Columbia, 700; Berks, 4400 (about 1000 last year); Philadelphia, 1500; Washington, Lancaster, Allegheny, Beaver, Armstrong, Union, Jefferson, and other Republican counties, have diminished their majorities to almost nothing. Centre county, the home of Curtin, gave a large Democratic majority. Pennsylvania is redeemed. Democrats, another fire into the enemies' ranks, and the country will be restored to peace and unity!

A Different Tune.

The Republican journals, since the election, are loud in their demands for the repeal of the law allowing the soldiers to vote. The reason of this, is, that the soldiers at the Washington camps, notwithstanding the electioneering of Republican officials and the suppression of Democratic tickets, as is charged by the Philadelphia Evening Journal, voted almost two to one for the Democratic candidates. Before the election, the Republicans were very anxious that "our brave soldiers" should be permitted to vote, but, now, their organ-grinders play quite a different tune. Somebody who did not expect such a "dig in the ribs," has had his "ox gored," which makes a vast difference with politicians as well as with "Advocates."

Words of Condolence.

Having been well educated in the knowledge of the sad consequences of divisions and dissensions among political associates, we can appreciate the distress of the Republicans of this judicial district, who by their own foolish differences have been compelled to allow a Democrat to be elected to that office. They have our hearty sympathy, and those of them who supported Mr. Nill, we congratulate upon their conversion to what they used to call "Locofocoism." The signs of the times are propitious.

The Vote for President Judge.

We give below the official vote of the counties composing this Judicial District, for the several candidates for President Judge:

	Reilly, D.	Nill, U. D.
Somerset,	1437	1597
Bedford,	2107	1497
Fulton,	858	687
Franklin,	2835	3498

The above is only partial so far as the military returns are concerned. The soldiers' vote may change the result of the election, but we presume that Mr. Nill is successful by a small majority. Mr. Reilly's majority in this county, exclusive of the soldiers' vote, is 610—a flattering endorsement, indeed.

BEDFORD LYCEUM.—The members of the Bedford Lyceum, will meet at the Court House, on next Saturday evening, for the purpose of reorganizing, and electing officers.

JOHN PALMER,
Sec'y.

Local and Miscellaneous.

....An oath from a woman's lips is unnatural and incredible. We would as soon expect a bullet from a rose-bud.

....Lucy Stone says:—"The cradle is a woman's ballot box." Then we've known some unlawful voting, where two ballots were were deposited at a time.

....Some fellow from Chicago boasted to Lincoln that he voted for him and worked to get him elected. "Yes," said the patriarch, "and a devil of a scrape you have got me into."

....Capt. H. C. Reamer's Company of Cavalry is fast filling up and will soon be ready to leave for Harrisburg. Persons wishing to join this company, should make early application to Capt. Reamer, at Bedford.

....What a glorious world this would be if all its inhabitants could say with Shakspeare's shepherd :—Sir, I am a true laborer; I earn that I wear; I owe no man hate, envy no man's happiness; glad of other men's good; content with my farm."

....We have lately noticed the marriage of a Mr. Mann to a Miss Little. We presume the lady was'nt tall, thus beautifully verifying the language of the poet, when he says,

"Man wants but Little here below,
Nor wants that Little long."

....We have been requested by the ladies composing the "Knitting Association" of the Borough of Bedford to state that all stockings completed should be sent to Mrs. Virginia B. Tate, by the 1st of November next, as the Association intend forwarding them at that time, to Harrisburg. We hope contributors in the country and neighboring villages, will send their contributions before that date.

....PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, as Mr. Thomas Knox, of Boydstown, was coming down Dry Ridge, with a wagon load of boards, in attempting to mount the lead horse from the tongue of the wagon, he fell between the horses, and being unable to extricate himself, the wheels of one side of the wagon, passed over his thigh, breaking the bone just above the knee. At last accounts Mr. K. was in a critical condition.

....A FLATTERING VOTE.—Mr. Cessna, the Democratic candidate for Assembly, for this county, although defeated by Somerset county, may well be proud of the vote polled for him in this county. The result in the following districts, in one of which (Colerain) Mr. Cessna was born and raised, looks something like a clean sweep: Bedford Borough, Cessna, 193, Householder, 17; Bedford tp., Cessna, 293, Householder, 33; Colerain, Cessna, 178, Householder, 36; Southampton, 171, Householder, 19: aggregate, Cessna 835, Householder 105; majority for Cessna in the four districts, 730!

....The Real estate of Henry Ickes, dec'd, will be sold on Wednesday, Oct. 23d. See advertisement.

....No war news of importance this week.

Voting in Camps.

Now that the election is over, we can urge a matter which we have heretofore refrained from urging, lest our motives might be misconstrued: that is, the repeal of the law providing for the holding of elections in the camps of the Pennsylvania volunteers, on the regular election days. As it has been claimed that a majority of our volunteers were Democrats, it might have been pretended that we opposed the law because its operation might favor the Democratic cause.

But no matter who may be in the majority, the effect of the law is bad. Soldiers engaged in the servie of the country, with an enemy almost within sight, should not be disturbed by electioneering politicans. It is evident that that they think so themselves, for in some regiments no polls were opened, and in those where they were opened, scarcely half the men voted. This proves that when men go to fight, they do not care to vote, and probably not one volunteer in twenty would feel injured by being deprived of the right of sufferage while in the army. The officers of the army, we know, from the commander-in-Chief down, condemn the law, and it was contemplated, at one time, to forbid voting in the camps. But it was proabbly thought well to try a single experiment, the opportunity being thought favorable, as there was no danger of an attack from the enemy. But as it has been proved that the soldiers do not set a very high value on the privilege of voting while in active service, we trust that the law will be repealed at the next session of the Legislature, or else that the opening of the polls and the introduction of politicians into the camps will be forbidden by the General in command. The effect of carrying party politics into the army cannot fail to be most demoralizing.—Phila. Bulletin, Rep.

Democratic Generals.

As the abolition sheets are laboring very hard to create the impression that the Democrats are acting in bad faith toward the government, it may not be amiss to give the public a list of the general officers of the army who are and were members of the Democratic party, viz: Major Generals—George B. McClellan, John A. Dix, Benjamin F. Butler, and Robert Patterson.—Brigadier Generals: Wm. J. Rosecrans, Frederick W. Lander, Isaac J. Stephens, Andrew Porter, George Cadwallader, Daniel E. Sickles, Burnside, Heintzleman, Hunter, Franklin, Lyon, McDowell, Blenker, Robert Anderson, Prentiss, Morris, Smith, Sturgis, Sweeny, Wright, and a host of others, whose names we are unable to call to mind. From the above list, it will be seen that fully two thirds of the general officers are members of the Democratic party, while fully three fourths of the rank and file of the army belong to the same party. Many of the above were warm supporters of John C. Breckinridge for the Presidency. Gen. Isaac J. Stephens, reputed to be the best military man and the most scientific officer in the army, was chairman of the National Breckinridge Committee. Gen. F. W. Lander, so renowned for his personal bravery, stumped the whole State of California last fall for Breckinridge. And these are the men who are branded as traitors by the advocates of fusion.—Star of the North.

The military vote returned, gives Reilly 16, Nill 66; Burns 17, Metzgar 72; Cessna 42 maj. over Householder; Sansom 16, Millburn 72; Shoemaker 17, Keeffe, 72; Ake 17, Evans 72; Defibaugh, 17, Overaker 72. The official returns of some of the Companies were not forwarded to the Return Judges, but no matter how those companies may have voted, the result will not be affected by their omission.

Connecticut Town Election.

The following towns elected the Union ticket on Monday:—

Essex, Chester, Clinton, Norwich, Colchester, Bristol, Chatham, Bridgeport, Naugatuck, Waterbury, (by 40), Middletown, Putnam, Derby, Glastenbury (except town clerk), Middlebury, Watertown, Woodstock, Plainfield, Pomfret, Wellington, Canton, Old Saybrook (by 12), East Windsor, Manchester, Windsor, Portland, Madison, Woodbury, Orange.

The following towns elected the straight Democratic ticket on Monday:—

Bloomfield (40 majority) Bolton (30 majority) Branford (150 majority), Bethany (30 majority), Wallingford (60 majority), Cheshire (18 majority), Seymour, Naugatuck, Southbury, (40 majority), Southington (60 majority), Oxford (75 majority), Weston (40 majority), Wolcott (70 majority), Cromwell (40 majority), Tolland (80 majority), Preston.

Republican,—

Stonington, Plymouth.

ROBBERY AT WHEATLAND.—On Saturday night or Sunday morning the carriage house of Ex President Buchanan at Wheatland was broken open and a very valuable set of double harness carried off. The thieves effected an entrance by prying open the door and found the harness in a small closet or box kept for that purpose. These harness were purchased at Washington by Mr. Buchanan shortly after his inauguration as President, at a cost of five hundred and thirty dollars. They are heavily mounted with silver, and as the rogues will hardly attempt to dispose of them, through fear of detection, it is likely they will cut off the mountings, melt them down and sell it as old silver. The silver alone in this shape would probably yield them several hundred dollars. After securing the harness the rogues visited the [illegible] and [illegible] all manner of day purchased by Mr. Buchanan's housekeeper. The rascals were apparently well acquainted with the premises.—Lancaster Express.

DEATH OF EX SENATOR MANGUM.—Hon. Willie P. Mangum, of North Carolina, died at his residence in Orange county, in that State, on the 14th ult. For some years he had suffered with paralysis, and it is probable that the recent death of his only son, from a wound received on the field of Manassas, depressed his spirits to a point from which he could not rally. Mr. Mangum was once a judge of the Superior Court of N. Carolina, and afterward represented the Statein both branches of the United States Congress. On the death of President Harrison and the installation of Mr. Tyler as President, Mr. Mangum was chosen President of the senate and for the remainder of the term was virtually the Vice President of the United States. He was a man of brilliant attainments, an eloquent orator, and the possessor of those private virtues which endeared him to his neighbors and friends. The North Carolina Legislature, on receiving intelligence of his death, passed suitable resolutions of respect to his memory.

THE REASON WHY.—The editor of the Alleghanian asks; "What's the matter with Blair County. While Cambria County has about 1200 of her sons in the field, battling for the Union, Blair County, her equal in population, has only 500?" We can explain it neighbor. Cambria is a Democratic, Blair a Republican County. It is the Democrats who do the volunteering and fighting in the present war. The Republicans remain sungly at home, and denounce their Democratic neighbors as secessionists. Well, we suppose it is all right. It is not now a difficult matter to perceive the difference between a Republican and Democratic County. Do you know the reason why, now, neighbor? Of course you do and are grteful to us for the information.—Ebensburg Sentinel.

Pennsylvania Election.

LANCASTER COUNTY.

The Union ticket, composed of Union Democrats and Republicans, is probably elected, wich the expectation of the candidate for Treasurer, over the regular Republican ticket.—Long, (Union,) and the present Judge, has beaten Hood (Straight Republican.) Two of the Assemblymen on the Union ticket, Nathan Worley and Abraham Peters, are Democrats and the other two Republicans. The vote between the respective tickets is very close, and the supposed result may be altered by the offical count.

LYCOMING COUNTY.

From the information received it seems probable that the Union ticket has been elected with the exception of the President Judge, one Associate Judge who was upon both tickets, and the County Treasurer—the latter still in donbt, with the chances in favor of Strawbridge, (Dem.) This estimate is made without reference to the vote of the volunteers in the army, which possibly may change its complexion. The vote in the county is small.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY

The Democratic majority in Westmoreland county exceeds one thousand. This county in conjunctiou with Armstrong elects three members of Assembly. Nothing has been heard from Armstrong, but in all probability the Democratic Assembly ticket is triumphantly elected. The district was represented last winter by Republicans.

YORK COUNTY.

The Democrats have carried their whole ticket in York county by a very large majority. A. Hiestand Glatz is elected to the Senate, and two Democratic Assemblymen. Judge Fisher beats Thomas E. Cochrane for Presibent Judge some 1,600 and is unquestionably elected as the majority in Adams County must be small either way.

LEHIGH COUNTY.

The Democratic majority in Lehigh County is about 1,700. Wm. C. Lichtenwallner and Thomas Craig, Democrats, are elected to the Legislature. George W, Stein, Democrat, is elected to the Senate from Lehigh and Northampton.

BLAIR COUNTY.

The whole Republican ticket is elected with the exception of Roller, the candidate for the Legislature, who is defeated by Thaddeus Banks, Dem. by a small majority.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

The Republicans have carried their Assembly ticket in Allegheny county by a reduced majority.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.

Isaac Slenker, Dem., for President Judge, has a majority of 225. Ross, Dem., is probably elected to the Legislature, and the balance of the Democratic ticket defeated.

SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

The Democratic ticket has swept this county by a large majority. Bernard Reilly (Dem.) is elected to the Senate by 1,500 majority, and three Democratic members of the House.—These are all Democratic gains.

ADAMS COUNTY.

The result in the county is very close.—Myers, the Democratic candidate for Assembly, has a few majority in the county, but the army vote is yet to hear from. Ziegler, Dem., Associate Judge, is reported to be elected.

ERIE SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

Lowry, the radical Republican candidate, has been elected to the State Senate over the Union candidate in the Twenty-seventh Legislative District.

LUZERNE COUNTY.

The contest between the Union ticket and the regular Democratic ticket seems to be close. Ross, Dem., who was on the Union ticket, is elected to the Legislature. Reichart, also on the Union ticket, is elected Associate Judge.

THE MIGHTY HEALER.—Let not disease with its fangs, prey upon you, until the cold hand of death hurls you to an utimely grave. Shake off the feeling of despair and hopelessness, so liable to come upon the invalid. The plant born of the Sun we place within the reach of all. We care not what may be the specific from the disease. The cause, the fountain of the disease itself, is impure blood, and through the different channels of the lungs, the stomach and the vitals organs, JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS will pass, mingling with the blood, search out and grasp and then expel, all hurtful poison that there is in it. Thus cleanse the blood by a few doses of these Pills, and disease, in any form, will dissipate and vanish. As the Sun with its glorious beams first causes the morning dew to rise as mist, then growing stronger, casts his burning rays upon it——and behold 'tis gone——so cleanse the blood, and disease, like morning dew, retreats and vanishes. There is no blood purifier equal to JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS. ——Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.—

A BRIEF MEMORIAL OF MISS SUSAN ELIZABETH SHUCK.

This excellent young lady is no longer in our midst, as a resident of earth, but has left the companionships of this fleeting life, to join another company, and to be a dweller with them of an invisible world. She was born of devout Methodist parentage, in the Town of Bedford Pa, Sept. 4th, 1840, and closed her earthly history, in the morning of her youth, and in the bright hopes of the Christian faith, on the Holy Sabbath day, October 6th, 1861. When but a child, like one of the scripture characters, she "began to seek after the God of her Father." Thus early giving her heart to the Lord, she experienced the converting grace of Christ, united herself with the M. Episcopal Church and become an efficient teacher in its flourishing Sabbath School, and continued to adorn her Ghristian profession by the labors of an active piety, until, about a year since, she became, in the mysterious, yet ever gracious Providence of God, the child of deep affliction; when the genuineness of her religion in its active bearings, was demonstrated in its passive characters to be a "plant of God's own right hand planting." Watered by the dew and protected by the power of Divine grace, this beautiful plant of heavenly origin flourished in her heart and shed its fragrance over her entire character. In affliction, as in health, she maintained the integrity of that inner life which is "hid with Christ in God," and greatly rejoiced in the midst of more than ordinary bodily sufferings, in the possession of that spiritual comfort" wherewith she was comforted of God." It was truly refreshing to witness in her experience, the power of spiritual religion to give aid, and consolation and blessed hope, when all else is as "the shadow of death." This was triumphantly so, on the evening of her departure, when, after telling her dear Mother of her loss of sight and hearing, and after this dearest of earthly friends gathered courage to say, "Susan, my dear, this is death," —she calmly looked the monster in the face, and said, "Mother, is this really death?—Then, Mother I am not afraid to die."—Nor will a multitude of her young companions soon forget her parting words and dying admonitions, when, "the chamber where she met her fate, seemed privileged beyond the common walks of virtuous life, quite on the verge of Heaven." May we all then follow her as she followed Christ, and may our "last end" be as peaceful and as glorious, as was that of our youthful friend; for she, "being dead, yet speaketh."

S. K.

BENEDICT.—Of Diptheria, in Bedford, Oct. 6th, Ginnie, only child of Rev. F. and B. Benedict, aged 7 yrs., 2 mos., and 9 days.

With the fading leaves of Autumn, she has passed away. Death truly "loves a shining mark;" he has assailed us in a thousand forms, has filled our hearts with sorrow at every period of our lives, and yet has he not lost his terrors. He has again been in our midst, and removed from among us this lovely child, and we feel the blow as poignantly as tho, we had never felt it before. Possessing a sweet and affectionate disposition, many loved her, and mourn that her pilgrimage upon Earth has been of so short duration—ever childish glee has been hushed, and little companions have wept for Ginnie.

But Home is where her loss will be most deeply felt—by those fond parents whose tenderness pillowed so softly her sinking head; the light, the joy of that little family circle is gone:—deep is the anguish of their hearts: friends may condole, but cannot console them —Nature's fountain must overflow. Yet sorrowing parents, deep as is this affliction, there is comfort for you in remembering that it was ordered by a God of Love, who does not willingly afflict any of his creatures. He has transplanted that lovely bud upon which you bestowed so much care and attention, to bloom amongst the roses of Heaven. Had her Earthly stay been prolonged, that gentle heart would not long have been a stranger to sorrow —for in this Life, "all is vanity and vexation of spirit." May the assurance that Ginnie now dwells with that Saviour who has said, "Suffer your little ones to come to me," fall like oil upon your troubled hearts, and as "Mama! Papa!" were the last words she uttered upon Earth, so may they be the first to greet you it. Heven.

CHEAP FOR CASH.

Come one, come all, I wish to tell
You where the cheapest goods they sell
(Tis not less true that I have said it ;)
SHOEMAKER'S is the place: "Tis well!"—
To buy for cash, or four months credit.

So when you feel inclined to buy,
Just stop at Job's your luck to try,
And if his terms will please you ;
You'll find his goods are never high
And of your cash he'll "ease you."

PUBLIC SALE

OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Bedford County, the undersigned will offer the whole of the real estate of Daniel Means, deceased, for sale, on the premises, in Black Valley, Monroe Tp.,

On Friday, the 1st Day of November,

next. The real estate consists of two tracts, viz: The Mansion tract, containing about TWO HUNDRED ACRES, and having thereon erected a

SAW MILL AND BARN,

(the dwelling house having been lately burnt.) This tract contains an excellent WATER POWER—the head and tail races are already dug.

There is no better locality for a Mill or Tan Yard. Both are in demand and much needed in the neighborhood. An abundance of bark is close by and cheap.

This property is not more than 6 or 7 miles from the present terminus of Broad Top Rail Road now under contract and soon to be completed. The road is a solid ridge road, leading from the rail road to the premises. The land is good for farming purposes. But for either of the purposes suggested—a mill or tan yard—there is a rare opportunity presented for a profitable investment.

The other tract is a mountain tract, adjoining the above—is well timbered and in connection with the mansion tract is valuable. It contains about 250 acres and has a DWELLING HOUSE and SHOP thereon erected—about 40 acres cleared. About one half of the mansion tract is also cleared and the balance well timbered.

TERMS:—One third in hand, at confirmation of sale, and balance in two equal annual payments with interest.

T. M. LYNCH, at the Bedford Nursery, offers for sale this fall, at war prices, a general stock of fruit trees, consisting of all the choicest varieties of Apples, Pears, Peaches, Plums, Cherries, Nectarines, Quinces, and Dwarf Pear trees, of the finest kinds. Upwards of 15,000 trees are now under cultivation.

Lawton Blackberries, Raspberries, including Brinckley's Orange, Gooseberries that will not mildew. Cherry Currants, size of common cherries, Dutch Currants, Strawberries of finest kinds.—Choicest varieties of

GRAPE ROOTS, RHUBARB, ASPARAGUS,
EVERGREENS, VINES AND CREEPERS.

Fifty Varieties of ROSES, Perpetual Blooming, all colors and shades.

My stock is remarkably thrifty and will be sold, for cash, much lower than traveling agents are selling at, who have to bring their stock a great distance and thereby injure them very much by exposure.

The above stock is raised in Bedford County soil and climate and can be had fresh from the ground.

All orders promptly attended to and trees sent as directed by back or otherwise.

NO person who contemplates purchasing a Sewing Machine for family or manufacturing purposes should fail to send for one of our Circulars, which contains cuts and full descriptions of the several styles, prices and samples of work, all of which we send by mail free. We claim to have the

BEST SEWING MACHINES IN THE WORLD

For either Family or Manufacturing Purposes.

And all we ask is a fair trial. Read the following:

IMPORTANT FACTS.

FACT No. 1.—This Company being duly licensed, their Machines are protected against infringements or litigation.

FACT No. 2.—These Machines make the lock-stitch—alike on both sides—and use a little less than half as much thread and silk as the chain or loop-stitch machines.

FACT No. 3.—These Machines are better adapted than any other sewing-machines in market to the frequent changes and almost endless variety of sewing required in a family. They will sew from one to twenty thicknesses of Marseilles without stopping, and make every stitch perfect. They will even sew from the finest gauze to the heaviest cloth, and even stout, hard leather, without changing the feed, needle, or tension, or making any adjustment of machine whatever.—Is not such a machine best adapted to family use? and if best adapted to family use, why not for every variety of light sewing manufacture? For work too heavy for our Family Machine, we recommend our larger sizes.

FACT No. 4.—These Machines make the most elastic seam of any sewing-machine in use—a fact of very great importance in sewing elastic goods, or goods of any kind, or a bias.

FACT No. 5.—No Machine is more durable or more simple in its construction, or more easily understood. The reputation of these Machines wherever used will fully demonstrate each of the above facts.

FACT No. 6—These Machines took the Highest Premium at the Franklin Institute, Philadelphia.

FACT No. 7—These Machines took the Highes Premium at the New Jersey State Fair.

FACT No 8.—These Machines took the Highest Medal at the American Institute, in the City of New York, together with the Highest Premium for fine Sewing-Machine Work.

FACT No. 9.—These Machines took both the Highest Premiums at the Mechanics' Fair, Utica,

FACT No. 10.—These Machines can do the same thing generally, whenever properly exhibited in competition with other first-class Sewing Machines. But we have space for only one fact more—it is the most important Fact of all

FACT No. 11.—We warrant every Machine we sell to give better satisfaction than any other Sewing-Machine in market, or money refunded.

JUDSON'S

Mountain Herb Pills.

ABOVE, we present you with a perfect likeness of Tezuco, a chief of a tribe of the strange Aztec Nation, that once ruled Mexico. You will find a full account of him and his people in our Pamphlets and Almanacs—to be had gratis, from the Agents for these Pills.

The Inventor and Manufacturer of "Judson's Mountain Herb Pills," has spent the greater part of his life in traveling, having visited nearly every country in the world. He spent over six years among the Indians of the Rocky Mountains and of Mexico, and it was thus that the "MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS" were discovered. A very interestin account of his adventures there, you will find in our Almanac and Pamphlet.

It is an established fact, that all diseases arise from

IMPURE BLOOD!

The blood is the life! and when any foreign or unhealthy matter gets mixed with it, it is at once distributed to every organ of the body. Every nerve feels the poison, and all the vital organs quickly complain. The stomach will not digest the food perfectly. The liver ceases to secrete a sufficiency of bile. The action of the heart is weakened, and so the circulation is feeble. The lungs become clogged with the poisonous matter; hence, a cough—and all from a slight impurity at the fountain-head of life—the Blood! As if you had thrown some earth, for instance, in a pure spring, from which ran a tiny rivulet, in a few minutes the whole course of the stream becomes disturbed and discolored. As quickly does impure blood fly to every part, and leave its sting behind. All the passages become obstructed, and unless the obstruction is removed, the lamp of life soon dies out.

These pills not only purify the blood, but regenerate all the secretions of the body; they are, therefore, unrivalled as a

CURE FOR BILIOUS DISEASES,

Liver Complaint, Sick Headache, &c. This Anti-Bilious Medicine expels from the blood the hidden seeds of disease, and renders all the fluids and secretions pure and fluent, clearing and resuscitating the vital organs.

Pleasant indeed, is it to us, that we are able to place within your reach a medicine like the "MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS," that will pass directly to the afflicted parts, through the blood and fluids of the body, and cause the sufferer to brighten with the flush of beauty and health.

Judson's Pills are the Best Remedy in existence for the following Complaints:

Bowel Complaints,	Debility,	Inward Weakness,
Coughs,	Fever and Ague,	Liver Complaints,
Colds,	Female Complaints,	Lowness of Spirits,
Chest Diseases,	Headache,	Piles,
Costiveness,	Indigestion,	Stone and Gravel,
Dyspepsia,	Influenza,	Secondary Symptoms.
Diarrhœa,	Inflammation,
Dropsy,

GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE!

Females who value health, should never be without these Pills. They purify the blood, remove obstructions of all kinds, cleanse the skin of all pimples and blotches, and bring the rich color of health to the pale cheek.

☞ The Plants and Herbs of which these Pills are made, were discovered in a very surprising way among the Tezucans, a tribe of Aborigines in Mexico. Get the Almanac of our Agent, and you will read with delight, the very interesting account it contains of the "GREAT MEDICINE" of the Aztecs.

Observe.—The Mountain Herb Pills are put up in a Beautiful Wrapper. Each box contains 40 pills, and Retail at 25 cents per box. All genuine, have the signature of B. L. JUDSON & CO., on each box.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR BRO. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. SIR: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 5, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

LIGHTE & BRADBURYS' PATENT INSULATED FULL IRON FRAME NEW SCALE, GRAND, AND SQUARE PIANO FORTES.

THE INSULATED FRAME preserves the original tone of the instrument in all its purity, securing it for all time against that most disagreeable nequality of tone invariably found in all other Iron Frame Piano Fortes. It greatly strengthens the case, and thus keeps the Piano Forte much longer in tune. It gives the instrument a much fuller, richer, and sweeter tone. It adapts the Piano to all climates, and to all changes of atmosphere, and in all respects it is pronounced by our best "artistes" the greatest improvement of the age in Piano Forte construction; producing an instrument acknowledged to be superior to all others made in this country or Europe.

A few testimonials from some of the most eminent Pianists and Musician in the world, in regard to the Superiority of our New Scale Patent Insulated Piano Fortes.

"I have examined the Piano Fortes of Lighte & Bradbury's with entire satisfaction. I know not that there are any others better, either in our own country or elsewhere.

"DR. LOWELL MASON."

"In clearness, richness, and volume of tone, delicacy, elasticity of touch, and fine repeating action, I have never played upon their equal.

"H. A. WOLLENHAUPT."

"In volume, richness, evenness and purity of tone, and in delicacy of touch, they certainly excel, and in that beautiful singing quality so desirable, yet so seldom found.

WILLIAM MASON."

"I have never played upon so rich and heavy a tone Square Piano Forte.

"ARTHUR NAPOLEON."

"I am astonished and delighted with the New Scale Iron Frame Piano Fortes made by you. There must be a splendid future for Lighte & Bradbury's Piano Fortes.

"GEO. F. ROOT."

"I have never played upon so fine an instrument.

"GEO. F. BRISTOW."

"I consider them as to beauty, richness, fullness, and equality of tone, as well as their agreeable, elastic touch, equal, if not superior, to any Pianos made in this country or Europe.

KARL WELS."

"They have all the requirements for a superior interpretation of both classical and modern compositions.

"MAURICE STRAKOSH."

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony of the many artistes who speak in the highest terms to the superior excellence of your New Scale Patent Insulated Iron Frame Piano Fortes, and I must say that your New Scale very far surpasses all your former efforts, producing an instrument far superior in all the excellencies that constitute a perfect Piano Forte, to any with which I am acquainted.

"THEO EISFELD."

"Having examined your New Scale Iron Frame Pianos, we must express our delight and pleasure at their superior excellence. For their peculiar rich volume of tone, fine elastic touch, and in all the requisites necessary for perfection in the instrument, we must say, in all our experience, we have seen nothing to compare with them, and we can most cordially recommend them to our friends and the public

"CHAS. FRADEL."
"CARL BERGMAN."

"I tke much pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of the beautiful Pianos which I have recently seen made by your firm. In power, quantity, and equality of tone, they certainly excel; while for that peculiarly rich, singing tone, that is so invaluable as an accompaniment to the voice, sustaining and blending with it, I have rarely met with their equal.

"C. BASSINI."

"It is with pleasure I give my testimony to the excellence of your Pianos in general, and especially to the admirable new invention of Mr. Lighte, my improvement which I regard as the most important yet made in the manufacture of first-class instruments.

"LOUIS ERNST."

"I take pleasure in stating my favorable opinion of your New Scale Iron Frame Piano Fortes. Among many superior Piano Fortes manufactured in New York, they certainly must rank second to none of them for strength, purity, and richness of tone, together with extraordinary vibratory qualities. I have also had frequent opportunities, in the schools, during the past four years, to notice the durability of your instruments, and this under severe and unremitted trials.

"GEO. H. CURTIS."

"The high reputation which they have obtained for their fine brilliant tone, pleasant touch and power, have given them the preference over those of all other manufactures, in the Public Schoo's of New York, in which over one hundred are now in daily use, some twelve or fifteen of which are in departments where I have had the pleasure of teaching, and where I have used them for the last five years.

"MARCUS COLBURN."

"Being pleased with your steady progress in improving the quality of your Pianos, I cannot refrain from saying to you, after some fourteen years knowledge of them, that the New Scale with Iron Frame, which I have seen, I think the best Piano I ever saw. I say this after having purchased over two hundred of your Piano Fortes.

"F. H. NASH."

ST. NICHOLAS HOTEL,

BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BOARD REDUCED TO $2 PER DAY.

Since the opening of this vast and commodious Hotel, in 1854, it has been the single endeavor of the proprietors to make it the most sumptuous, convenient and comfortable home for the citizen and stranger on this side the Atlantic.

And whatever has seemed likely to administer to the comfort of its guests they have endeavored, without regard to cost, to provide, and to combine all the elements of individual and social enjoyment which modern art has invented, and modern taste approved; and the patronage which it has commanded during the past six years is a gratifying proof that their efforts have been appreciated.

To meet the exigencies of the times, when all are required to practice the most rigid economy, the undersigned.

HAVE REDUCED THE PRICE OF BOARD TO TWO DOLLARS PER DAY, at the same time abating none of the luxuries with which their table has hitherto been supplied.
